

Breakfast Invitation

We were looking at the story of the post resurrection appearance of Jesus to his disciples on the beach by the Sea of Tiberias. It seemed perfectly natural to share, what I remember as being a rather sticky, breakfast together during the service but we needed to do some explaining to our children as to why they were not getting to have their usual breakfast at home before church!

It's morning
time to get up
time to get washed
time to get dressed...

Hold on, what about time to play?

Ok, time to play!

It's morning
time to go to get shoes on time to go to church
time to have breakfast...

Hold on, we have breakfast before church!

Ah! Not today!

It's morning
time to meet God
time to meet one another
time to celebrate...

Hold on, what are we celebrating?

Today, we're celebrating celebrating Jesus appearing on the beach
celebrating the huge catch of fish
celebrating sharing breakfast on the beach...

*Ah! So that's why we're having breakfast together
I like breakfast!*

©Clare McBeath & Tim Presswood, 2008