

A Colourful Invocation

Bring red the colour of tongues of fire
Bring orange the colour of the warmth of the sun
Bring yellow the colour of a buttercup meadow
Bring green the colour of earth shooting forth plants
Bring blue the colour of water that bubbles life
Bring purple the colour of sorrow and divine contemplation
Bring white the colour of doves of peace
Bring black the colour of the velvety vastness of the universe

Come Holy Spirit bring fire and warmth and laughter
Come Holy Spirit bring water and earth and flowers
Come Holy Spirit bring community and space for reflection
Come Holy Spirit bring peace, healing and justice
Come Holy Spirit bring age and wisdom and beauty.
