

The Wonder Of Epiphany

This call to worship was written for Epiphany when we contrasted the enormity of the universe with just how vulnerable a baby is and that it is God who connects the two.

I wonder where God is?
I wonder how big is big?
I wonder how small is small?

And we look into the unfocused eyes of a new born baby
Surrounded by pilgrims from the four corners of the world
kneeling in the straw and dirt of a lowly cattle stall
And wonder at how tiny and vulnerable God is.

I wonder why God is?
I wonder why life is?
I wonder why we are?

And we look into the eyes of one another
As we listen again in awe and wonder
To the story of how God connects heaven and earth and shifts our relationships with God and with each other.

© Clare McBeath and Tim Presswood, 2011