

Wise women Call

We call on the radiance of the stars
Enlightening, enlivening, revealing.

We call on the nourishment of the earth
Conceiving, gestating, quickening.

We call on the exuberance of water
Surging, bursting, birthing.

We call on the inspiration of air
Invigorating, bracing, rejuvenating.

We call on the wisdom of the Goddess
Grounding, encompassing, liberating.

For we are women who give birth to ideas and to dreams
For we are women who heal hurts and nurture potential
For we are women who share stories and reshape lives
For we are women who celebrate love and laughter.
