

1,2,3

One star
Two paths
Three magi

One path leads to Herod
The power
The glory
Obedient riches
Supporting an unjust system
A comfortable life
A life without fear

One star
Two paths
Three magi

The other leads to Bethlehem
A stable
A baby
Innocent poverty
A world turned upside down
A challenging life
A life without home

One star
Two paths
Three magi

One star
Two paths
Three millennia

One path worships riches
The power
The glory
Politics and influence
A god in a distant heaven
Magnificent god
Majestic god

One star
Two paths
Three millennia

The other sees God in the baby
In poverty
In shabbiness
The ordinary crowned
A world turned upside down
God-given life

A life given freely

One star
Two paths
Three crosses

One loaf
Two paths
Three crosses

Where two or three are gathered together

Where two or three recognise me

Kings or commoners
Rich or poor
Black or white
Young or old
Women or men

Where two or three are gathered together
In my name

When you break the bread and drink the cup
Do it to remember
The baby crowned
The ordinary made extraordinary
The human made divine

[Share bread and wine]

One God
Two paths
Three magi

Three persons
Two paths
One challenge

Go now, and make me holy here and now
now and always here, there and everywhere

©Clare McBeath & Tim Presswood, 2007