

Invitation To Live

Come, listen to my stories and teachings
Come, smell the fresh caught fish and bread baking
Come, watch as I live out what I preach
Come, taste the wine of celebration
Come, touch my hands and my feet.

Faith is not a set of rules and regulations
Faith is not a set of dogmas and beliefs
Faith is not a list of dos and don'ts

Faith is about living and breathing
Faith is about hoping and believing
Faith is about relationship and journeying together

Faith is in the creating and dreaming God made flesh among us, and in us and through us if only we dare to let go and live.
