

Daring Blessing

Children often play the game of dares... "I dare you". This of course is not always fun and frequently leads to tears and arguments. This blessing though was a recognition that a blessing is also a call to live out our faith through the rest of the week by engaging with the world in which we live. We are not called to stay in our comfort zone but called on a journey that will involve the occasional risk taking and challenge. So I dare you....

May the God who travelled with Sarah and Hagar
go with us

May the Son who blessed children and outcasts
go with us

May the Spirit who dares us to risk something new
go with us

throughout the delights and challenges of this week and into the journey of eternity.

©Clare McBeath & Tim Presswood, 2007