

Journeying Together

This was written for a series on Ruth and Naomi, hence the reference to shoes! But it could be used as a more generic call to worship on the theme of journeying together.

Come, God calls us to journey together
Come, God calls us to sojourn for a while
Come, God calls us to share stories and laughter
Come let us worship the incarnate God made known among us.

© Clare McBeath and Tim Presswood, 2009