

Accountability Blessing

May the God who calls us to be accountable to one another
Deal justly and mercifully with us.

May the Son who calls us to share stories and bread with one another
Challenge us gently and help us to live graciously in community.

May the Spirit who calls us to explore as yet unknown possibilities
Fire us with energy and hope to participate in God's dreams for humanity and for the earth.

© Clare McBeath and Tim Presswood, 2009