

Blessing For The Journey

This was written for a series on Ruth and Naomi, hence the reference to shoes! But it could be used as a more generic blessing on the theme of journeying together.

God who walks with us in our shoes
Bless our commitment to journey together

God who risks exploring the uncharted path
Bless our risk taking to live out our hopes and our dreams

God who soothes tired feet when the going is rough
Bless us and hold us and never let us go.

© Clare McBeath and Tim Presswood, 2009