

Sarah's Family Tree

So often we talk about Abraham and his descendants as if they were one happy family. Read a bit further and it could be Shameless, Coronation Street or Eastenders.

As God called Abraham and Sarah to journey into the unknown;
So God calls us to journey in faith;

As God called Hagar and Ishmael to birth a new people;
God calls us to risk new things;

As God called Rebekah to love the stranger Isaac;
God calls us to welcome the stranger;

As God called the twins Jacob and Esau to make up after a life of animosity;
God calls us to say sorry and forgive one another;

As God called Rachel and Leah to share their lives and nurture the next generation;
God calls us to share our lives and nurture the next generation.
