

Invitation To The Feast

Generous God

You invite us as your guests to feast at the table of life the table of life - a feast in the midst of the everyday in the middle of a not too pretty reality a feast of life -
not set apart not looking down on everyone else or eating the crumbs from under the table but sat round the table as equals celebrating difference celebrating diversity celebrating community.

Help us to come humbly to your feast to tread lightly on the traditions of others to make sure everyone feels included to share in celebration of the feast of life.
