

Child's Call To Worship

This was written especially for Imogen, the youngest member of our congregation who, at the time, struggled to get her voice heard above the din of everyone else. The point of the call to worship of course is that God hears all of us, however quiet we are, and also serves as a reminder to the rest of us to listen to the youngest and quietest among us. Imogen really enjoyed reading this prayer out loud and having her voice heard!

Quietly Hello

[No one takes any notice]

A Bit Louder Hello
Can anyone hear me?

Still Louder Hello
Please be quiet!

Shouting SHUT UP AND LISTEN
IT'S TIME TO PRAY!!!

[As the congregation becomes silent]

If God can hear me
Why can't you?

©Clare McBeath & Tim Presswood, 2006